

the Immaculate Conception chapter of Pax Christi presents

“Building a Peace Church”

a talk by

Mary Anne Muller

president, Pax Christi Metro New York and pastoral associate, St. Vincent Ferrer in Brooklyn

Monday, February 27, 2006 at 8pm

The Church of the Immaculate Conception
16 North Broadway
Irvington, NY

Free! All welcome!

for information call Fr. Raymond Byrne 914-591-7480

Pax Christi is an international Catholic peace and justice organization that takes a proactive role in making Americans aware of many social issues such as hunger, homelessness, and the death penalty. It strives to make peace a viable solution for conflicts throughout the world.

The Immaculate Conception Pax Christi group meets on the first Monday of every month at 8 pm at the Rectory. Contact Father Byrne for more information.